though every one of them was a member of his own family, and the annual Thanksgiving banquet is for that particularly family.

All those who will attend the banquet are urged to be on hand promptly at 6 o'clock, as there will be no waiting.

"Ah, Miss Jones and the cater, 'I remember meeting you when you were 4 years old. That was 12 years ago, and I was a young man of 21, and a candidate for office. Yes, I remember the incident well for I liked you, and your name voted for me." "Are you a candidate for office this year?" she asked inquired. "Because papa is still voting."

Not a Credit to the Community. We wouldn't like to be charged as a loafer, and yet we feel it our duty to call attention to the fact that our town is looking shabby. There is hardly a self-respecting man in town that would be willing to stand a night in it as it is now—Arlene Clark, Chronicle.

Union Service at Convention Hall

ing," they argue. "Whatever else I have can be attributed to my individual efforts, my ability or my influence, and I'm too modest to thank myself."

But this unfortunate class is far in the minority, fortunately, and all the more so in the city of Tulsa. The truly grateful on this day of the year which is set aside to offer up thanks to him, the creator of all things, for that which we have—or have not.

This Thanksgiving will be considerably out of the ordinary for the reason that there is to be a special Thanksgiving union service at Convention hall, beginning at 11 o'clock this morning and continuing until noon. Everybody of the city is invited, no matter what their religious beliefs and probabilities are the spacious hall will be filled long before the hour set for beginning the service.

Stores Close Early. Heretofore most of the business houses remained open until noon. This morning all proprietors of stores who are members of the Retail Merchants' association are expected to close at 10:45 o'clock, thereby giving their employees an opportunity to attend the union service. The majority of those who are not members of the association probably will do likewise.

The difference of an hour and a half will make little difference in the day's results, while all employees will be thankful for the consideration shown them.

An elaborate program has been arranged for the union service and everyone who attends must enjoy it. Miss L. M. Kimmons will preside at the municipal organ, and among the musical numbers which have not been mentioned will be the singing of the song "Thanksgiving" by a quartet comprising Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brown, Mrs. J. H. Reidemann and Mr. W. R. Guberson.

There will be a special Thanksgiving high mass celebrated at the Holy Family church this morning, to which all parish members are urged to be in attendance, while in the city and county fairs there also will be services of a special nature conducted by mem-

Lobby of Tulsa Y. M. C. A., Where Strangers May Feel at Home on Thanksgiving or Any Other Day of Year

If there's one day in all the year when the average man wants to be home, that day is Thanksgiving. If frequently happens, however, that many men are unable to reach their homes, and this is where the Y. M. C. A. plays a conspicuous part in the lives of such persons.

In the spacious and beautiful lobby of the Tulsa Y. M. C. A., all the comforts of home and many which never are found in any home are provided for those who are "caught between trains" as it were. Solid comfort may be found in the luxurious chairs, while the long hours of the day may be devoted to reading or playing games with congenial companions, which always are made in ample place.

The Thanksgiving dinner, and such a Thanksgiving dinner may be had in the cafeteria, among the largest and best appointed to be found anywhere. There the festive turkey will steam before your eyes and any part you desire, either the white or dark meat, will be cut off for you by experienced chefs who have orders to be liberal. All the side dishes you cherish are there, in addition to many others you probably never partaken of, and all may be had at a nominal cost.

There will be open house in the "Y" lobby throughout today, so if you are in Tulsa instead of at home, and are unacquainted it will do you good to visit this very excellent institution where good fellowship always awaits you.

YOUR BRONCHIAL TUBES

When a cold settles in the bronchial tubes, with that weakening, tickling cough, immediate treatment is very important. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present; your head jars with every cough and your chest may ache.

This is no time for experimenting or delay—you must get Scott's Emulsion at once to drive out the cold which started the trouble, and it will check the cough by aiding the healing process of the enfeebled membranes.

If you have any symptoms of bronchitis, or even a stubborn cold, always remember that Scott's Emulsion has been relieving this trouble for forty years. It is free from alcohol or drugs. Refuse substitutes.
